Dear Mr. Harris:

On behalf of Director Webster, I wish to express our appreciation for the information contained in your letter dated 1 October 1987, which we received on 17 November, on the reporting obligations of departments, agencies and entities involved in intelligence activities. In light of your firsthand experience as a former consultant to the Senate Intelligence Committee, the information contained in the letter, along with the enclosures you provided, will be particularly useful to the Agency in clarifying the coverage of the Intelligence Oversight Act of 1980. Accordingly, I will see to it that your correspondence is brought to the attention of relevant CIA components.

Thanks again for providing us with these materials.

Sincerely,

David D. Gries
